WIN ONE OF FIVE PAIRS OF TICKETS TO SEE THE DEAF COMEDIAN

Celebrating Signing Week at The

MILL THEATRE

D U N D R U M

The Deaf Comedian – John Smith – will play the Mill Theatre Dundrum on Wednesday, 10 September to mark Ireland's first ever Signing Week organised by the Irish Deaf Society. The deaf comedy gig also runs as part of the Bulmers Comedy Festival.

John Smith is profoundly Deaf and a Sign Language user and following on from his hugely successful, first stand up appearance late in 2005, John has moved onto bigger audiences, entertaining in theatres and deaf clubs through the United Kingdom and across Europe, using his experiences of growing up deaf in a hearing world. John brings his observations of life, engaging his audience in hours of laughter and reflection. He covers topics such as current deaf issues, deaf politics and school life offering an amusing and fascinating insight into being Deaf.

John Smith performs for one night only at The Mill Theatre Dundrum at 8pm and the gig is open to both the signing and hearing communities (this is a signing only event). Tickets can be purchased by either contacting The Irish Deaf Society on (01) 860 8678, email eddie@irishdeafosociety.ie, calling the Mill Theatre, Dundrum, on (01) 296 9340, email aoife@milltheatre.com, or check out www.bulmerscomedy.ie.
